Assessment

You will complete the summative assessment within an 8-day window. This will be scheduled to take place following your 12 month programme and the date is yet to be confirmed. The assessment will be based around a case-study which will be released on the first day of the 8-day assessment window and you will submit a 1500-word response. The assessment is open book, meaning you will have access to all of the programme content and any other materials or research to support you in completing your assessment.
